A Series to Lead Us Into Lent: Building Blocks for a Happy, Healthy Home and Marriage

This morning, we begin a four-part series titled, "Building Blocks for a Happy, Healthy Home and Marriage," that will lead us to the season of Lent. Then, in another four-part series in Lent, we will explore "Strength and Salvation from the Psalms."

As we consider love, marriage, and home let's consider the following:

"There is no more lovely, friendly, charming relationship, communion, or company than a good marriage." -Martin Luther

"The strength of a nation derives from the integrity of the home." -Confucius

"The quality of love and the duration of a relationship are in direct proportion to the depth of the commitment by both people to making the relationship successful. Commit yourself wholeheartedly and unconditionally to the most important people in your life." -Brian Tracy

"Holy matrimony is an honorable estate, instituted of God, and signifying to us the mystical union which exists between Christ and the Church." -The Book of Common Prayer

"If anyone does not provide for one's relatives, and especially for immediate family, he or she has denied the faith and is worse than an unbeliever." -I Timothy 5:8

"I believe that being successful means having a balance of success stories across the many areas of your life. You can't truly be considered successful in your business life if your home life is in shambles." -Zig Ziglar

"Love has nothing to do with what you are expecting to get, only with what you are expecting to give, which is everything." -Katherine Hepburn

"The more you invest in a marriage, the more valuable it becomes." -Amy Grant

"Dear friends, let us love one another, for love comes from God." -I John 4:7

We are not alone, we live in God's world. We believe in God: who has created and is creating, who has come in Jesus, the Word made flesh, to reconcile and make new, who works in us and others by the Spirit. We trust in God. We are called to be the church; to celebrate God's presence, to love and serve others, to seek justice and resist evil, to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope. In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen

Glory be to the Father and to the Son and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

Responding to the Disaster in Haiti As you know, the world is responding to the human need in Haiti. However, the immense scale of the need (upwards of 3 million people in need) means that our efforts are important and will be needed for weeks and months to come. What can we do now? Here are some specific things each of us can do now and into the future:

- (1) Pray for the victims and relief efforts;
- (2) Make one or more Health Kits (Find Instructions in the narthex);
- (3) Assist or join a traveling team to Haiti (Go to www.umvim.org) for instructions;
- (4) Give to support UMVIM (UM Volunteers in Mission)-make your check out to the church. 100% goes directly to food, water, and relief efforts in Haiti;
- (5) Give directly to UMVIM, SEJ (Southeast Jurisdiction) by going to sejinfo@umvim.org, call 404-377-7424, or mail your check directly to: UMVIM, SEJ, 315 West Ponce de Leon Avenue, Suite 750, Decatur, Georgia 30030.
